The Master's Message

Brethren,

Imagine a blank canvas.

Imagine all the colors of the visible spectrum at our disposal in which to paint that canvas.

That is what 2021 represents for our Lodge.

The portrait of 2020 is now complete, and it could be considered a portrait of chaos, tragedy, and pain. However, if we look closer, it is also a portrait of hope, selfless sacrifice, and love for our fellow man. It is a portrait of gray and muted colors that shows a world that had an ever-present dark cloud on the horizon. On the edge of that dark cloud was a silver lining and a beam of light that gave us hope that the sun will come back again.

A new year is now upon us, and we have a new canvas on which to paint.

For our Lodge, we begin as one unified Lodge where there once were two. We are ready to put away the gray colors from the previous portrait and again use bright colors for rekindled friendship, renewed fellowship, and a return to our beloved Brotherhood.

Horace Chase has been my home since the beginning of my Masonic journey, and you my Brothers have been my friends to walk with along this path. We have each had obstacles to overcome along the way, but together we clear those obstacles and forge the path ahead. I have faith that the days will get brighter, the light will be stronger, and the warm glow of that light will shine brightly in our Lodge again.

This month we will have our annual meeting with Election of Officers and the annual meeting of the Penacook Masonic Association. I am tentatively planning on January 31st as our Installation of Officers, but that is subject to change based upon COVID numbers. There will be a post-merger meeting on January 12th to discuss the various topics of moving forward as one unified Lodge. All are welcome to attend.

I am looking forward to this year and a return to a bit of normalcy within our lives and within our Lodge.

I wish you all the best my friends and I look forward to seeing you all again soon.

Your friend and Brother,
Wil (↔)
