The Master's Message

Brethren,

This month marks the fourteenth year since I was raised as a Master Mason.

As I contemplate that fateful day, I think back on the mentor that helped me get to that point. His name was Mike Diehl. He was a no-nonsense guy who treated me like a Brother even before I knew what that truly meant. As most of you know I was raised in Pennsylvania, but what you may not know is at the time I was taking my lessons, Pennsylvania did not have a cipher to help candidates learn their lessons. It was all done by word of mouth. While this made learning lessons more challenging for both the mentor and the candidate, it increased the Fraternal bond between Brothers.

Mike met with me three or four times a week for an hour or two, until I was proficient. This is something I will never forget. While I consider myself a New Hampshire Mason as the vast majority of my knowledge and experience as a Mason was gained here, that fundamental core bonding is something that makes me who I am.

I have often contemplated whether or not I should have waited until I moved to New Hampshire to submit my petition for Masonry. But, over time, I realized that I needed that experience as a Pennsylvania Mason to learn the subtle differences between the two States and it gave me a deeper insight of what it means to be a Mason.

This month our program will be to share our experiences with our first mentor with the Lodge. Hopefully by sharing our experiences, we can each gain a deeper understanding of our own.

Your friend and Brother,

Wil \
