The Master's Message

Brethren,

October is the month that has evolved into the period where we go to great lengths to give each other a fright. I would like you to know that it is OK to be afraid. Fear is only a temporary condition. What we do with that fear, determines our reality. We can run from it, or we can face it head on and overcome our fear.

In April, we started practicing for our EA degree. In the beginning, I have to admit, the rehearsals were a little rough. But we worked at it. We overcame our fears with help from our ritual director, who helped us to improve.

In June, we got to test our skills in our EA degree for Bro Teddy Metz. But we still had room to improve.

We had our Inspection from our District Deputy Grand Lecturer, RW Peter Crouch, at the end of September. I have to say that I am proud of each of the Officers because if this had been an actual Degree, the candidate would have received a fantastic Degree. I am honored to serve alongside you.

In October, we have an opportunity to test our skills again as we initiate a new member and help him start his first steps towards the Perfect Ashlar. I have full confidence that you will again do an outstanding job.

On a sad note, we did lose our Travelling Gavel last month. Brethren from King Solomon's Lodge in Elkins paid a visit during our Inspection, and although they only had three members with them, they exhibited the true spirit of the Travelling Gavel. Worshipful Ben Barton was indeed worthy to hold the gavel, as he was able to handle it with one hand and wield the power of Brotherhood. We were fortunate that evening to have RW Gary Roy present, who created the Travelling Gavel, and RW Robert Lethbridge, who was the first Master to present it.

October is also our move-up night. Come and be the first to witness our Senior Warden as he sits in the East and prepares for his next steps in Masonry. Our guest speaker for the evening will be DDGEO Robert Anderson.

On a personal note, I faced my own fears 15 years ago when I met and fell in love with my wife. Having given up on happiness, I saw joy again. And during one long-distance phone call, after admitting that I had always wanted to be a Mason, my journey began. Since then, I have faced many more fears—moving to a new state, meeting new people, making friends, finding a job, public speaking—all of which I have done with optimism and hope for a better tomorrow. Here's hoping you face your fears—whether large or small—and it brings a renewed hope to your life.

Your friend and Brother,

Wil ☩
